

heimtextil
8. – 11. 1. 2019

THIS WEEK

JORNAL-T.PT

HOME TEXTILES

MUNDOTÊXTIL INVESTS 18 MILLION EUROS

Mundotêxtil is concluding a 18 million euros investment in the retrofitting and modernization of its Vizela plant. This investment allows the home textile company to increase its levels of competitiveness, by producing more, spending less and directing their industrial flexibility to the production of small series.

READ MORE

TMG AUTOMOTIVE, COMPANY OF THE YEAR

TMG Automotive was awarded Company of the Year by Excellent Economia, an initiative held by Negócios (a Portuguese daily business newspaper) and PwC. BMW, Mercedes, Volvo, Toyota, Porsche and Jaguar are customers of this company, which owns 20 patents.

READ MORE

READ MORE

COSTA GAVE TRUDEAU WESTMISTER SOCKS

During his official visit to Canada, António Costa, the Portuguese Prime Minister, offered Justin Trudeau a set of six pairs of socks from the Portuguese brand WestMister. The Canadian Prime Minister is known for matching suit and tie with exuberant socks.

READ MORE

FILASA INNOVATES WITH FIBERS MADE FROM WOOD

Filasa, the Lasa group's spinning company, is asserting itself as a sustainability pioneer by using Ecovero, Lenzing's new viscose fibre, throughout its production. The fibers are obtained from sustainable wood and fulfill the strict guidelines of Ecolabels.

READ MORE

4TEAMS ARE THE CRISTIANO RONALDO OF SCARVES

The scarves and other official textile merchandising of Russia's football World Cup were made by 4Teams-Advertising & Merchandising, a Portuguese textile company already known as the Cristiano Ronaldo of scarves.

READ MORE

THINGS ARE CONSTANTLY CHANGING

“Working in the textile industry is a challenging job, which becomes easier if we accept that things are constantly changing. If we don't want be always running after the new trends, we have to be able to anticipate them and be trend setters”, says Ana Silva, 30, chemical engineer and Tintex Sustainability Director.

Burel meets Football City. To coat the office walls of the Football City Complex, in Oeiras, the Portuguese Football Federation chose a modern version of burel, a handmade fabric from the Portuguese mountainous regions. Created by Burel Factory, from Manteigas, this fabric is an elegant and customizable solution with an amazing thermal and sound proof capacity.

READ MORE

"In my company and in my classroom, saying 'I can't ...' is absolutely forbidden"

FILIPA MOREIRA

Teacher and designer
of Phi Clothing

FOLLOW US

Copyright © Jornal T

Do you want to change the way you receive these emails?

You can update your data ou leave the newsletter

The T Jornal intends to offer a personalized quality service, always respecting all privacy rights.
Your data is treated confidentially and is only used to send you information.

PROMOTOR SUPPORT

UNIÃO EUROPEIA
Fundo Europeu
de Desenvolvimento Regional

FOLLOW US